TOUNG MEN especially, who have become the victims of Soli-tary Vice, that dreadful and destructive labit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might other-wise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence or waked to cestacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

Married Persons or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, (Loss of Procreative Power-Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Deblity, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved. What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be enatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret labit. A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, soctural pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, desfuess, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall a, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts seperiod to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns." It is a melancholy fact that thousands Diff. victims to this terrible disease, through failing into the hands of Ignorant or unskillful PRE-TENDERS, who, by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and iscapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life Vigor and Happiness, in des-pair leave him with ruined Health to sigh over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr. Johnston pledges himself to preserve the most Inviolable Secreey, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere is enabled to offer the most eer-tain, speedy and effectual remedy in the world quors. for all diseases of imprudence.

sat within my tranquil room; The twilight shadows sank and rose With slowly flickering motions, waved Grotesquely through the dusk repose. There came a sudden thought to me, Which thrilled the spirit, flushed the brow-A dream of what our world would be

A thousand years from now! If Science on her heavenward search, Rolling the stiller charts apart, Or delving hour by hour to win The secrets of Earth's inmost heart. If that her Future apes her Past. To what new marvels men shall bow-

A thousand years from now! If Empires keep their wonted course, And blind Republics will not stay, To count the cost of laws which lead, Unerring to the State's decay, What changes vast of rule and realm-May greet the unborn ages still

In glory from the haunted East ; While souls on nobler heights of faith May mark the mystic pathway grow

A thousand years from now! Such things may be, but what perforce Must with ruthless epochs pass? Sure as the wane of flowers or grass; The earth so rich in tombs to-day,

There scarce seems space for Death to sow-Who, who shall count her church-yard wealth A thousand years from now ! And we, poor waifs, whose life-term files (When matched with AFTER and BEFORE)

To smite or spare, I marvel how These souls shall fare, in what strange sphere A thousand years from now ! Too dim, too vague, for mortal ken That far phantasmal Future lies : But Love! one sacred truth I read

Just kindling in your tear-dimmed eyes ; That states may rise and states may set, With age Earth's tottering pillars bow, But stillness Love can ne'er forget : And though we know not 'where' nor, 'how, Our conscious love shall blossom yet full measure of our support as citizens and as voters. Resolved, That we look to the Cincinnati Convention to give us candidates for President and Vice President who are above suspicion, and in whose personal integrity the nation can most surely trust; and that we also look to our friends throughout the State to make sure that, in presenting canidates for Congress and the Legislature, serviency shown to the defiant leaders of the force amuesty upon men too proud or unrepentent to ask it, or to guilty to deserve it; and for the combined recklessness and cowardice of their course on financial questions -a recklessness which mischievously holds out a threat to overthrow existing laws, and a cowardice or incapacity to originate a substitute for them-all which expose the Democratic par y as without a national instinct, or an unsectional impulse, or an affirmative policy, and as unfit to be trusted by the country which, when last under vortex of Civil War. Resolved, That recent events in the late slave States clearly expose a purpose on the part of the Democratic party to seize them all, and wield them, as a unit, in the next Presidential election; that to this end brutal and bloody conspiracies have been made to coerce voters, and base legislative conspiracies are at this moment in operation in order that an unprincipled and fraudulent majority may deprive properly-chosen officers of their legal rights; and as against these outrages we take an appeal to the set. people of the nation. Resolved, That the common safety demands that our public schools shall not only be free to all, but shall be preserved from all special control. All attempts to divide the school fund, for any purpose whatever or to divide any portion of it into any chau-nel not under popular control, is to be frowned upon and resisted with unvielding firmness. The recent defeat, in the Democratic Legislature of Maryland of a coustitutional amendment to secure the common school fund of that State against division, reveals at once a grave danger and its source and with other like facts makes plain the duty of Congress to submit such an amendment to the Constitution of the United States as, when adopted, will effectually defend the Common School system from all enemies, open or covert.

Miscellaneous. REPUBLICAN STATE CONVEN-The Republican State Convention assembled in the Opera House, at Harrisburg, at 12 o'clock, M., on Wednesday, March 29th, 1876. Among the delegates were most of the leading men of the party, who participated in the proceedings with an interest and spirit that evinced a determination to deliberate for the good of the o'clock by Col. H. M. Hoyt, Chairman State Central Committee. The roll of delegates was called by A. Wilson Norris, Secretary, and every district reported fully represented. Five delegates from the Republican Association at Washington man of the Republican County Committee were accorded seats on the floor of the of the said county. General Koontz said the Commonwealth ought to be potential in the coming national convention. Two years ago the Democratic party achied such success at the general elections as gave it a decisive majority in the popular branch of Congress. It has made loud professions of reforming abuses, but the thoughtful people of this John W Chalfant, Allegheny. country will expect but little in that direction from the administrators, with the will annexed, of Jacob Thompson, John B. Floyd, Toucey and Jefferson Davis. The Republican party lays claim to popular confidence, first, from the utter incapicity of the Democratic party to govern; second from its own bright and splendid achievements in the past; and third, for its high aims and purposes in the future. This party has resolved that the standard of official life shall be elevated. It has resolved that "no guilty man shall escape." It has resolved that the reign of terror throughout the Southern section of this country shall cease, and that the rights, the equal rights, of all, high and low, rich and poor, black and white, shall be the undoubted and recognized law of the Republic. With these high aims and purposes, with our honored Governor, John F. Hartranft, than whom none are more brave in the field, none could be more trusted in council, a pure and honest man, to be the standard bearer of this parparty, there can be no doubt that in the future victory will, as it has in the past,
